Thank you for your e-mail to the Chairman's Office of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. Your comments and concerns are very important to us. Unfortunately, because of the large volume of e-mail received, the Chairman cannot personally respond to each message. We do read and carefully consider the opinions expressed in all of the e-mails that we receive.

If you are an investor with a complaint about a securities professional, firm or a public company, please visit our Complaint Center, at <http://www.sec.gov/complaint.shtml>, to file a complaint. Investor information, including an introduction to the securities markets, how they work, the role of the SEC, investing basics and a variety of tools to aid investors, is available at www.investor.gov. In addition, if you have a securities-related question, please visit our website at <http://www.sec.gov/answers.shtml> to find fast answers to questions and solutions to common investment problems. If you are a securities professional needing assistance on technical matters, please check our website, www.sec.gov, and click on the "information for" pages link located in the bottom center of the home page.

We deeply appreciate your taking the time to communicate your thoughts and concerns to the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Sincerely,

Lori Schock
Director
Office of Investor Education and Advocacy
U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission
